Partnership Testimonials

The following are testimonials from partner institutions and collaborators of ALSA Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya who have established partnerships during this period, both long-term and short-term. These collaborations include community partners, media partners, and facilitators who have contributed to ALSA LC Unsri's programs.

ALSA LC Unsri members were highly enthusiastic and engaged during the Public Relations Coaching Class #2. Keep creating and contributing to ALSA, and never stop learning to gain greater knowledge and experience.

Mikhail Teguh Pribadi

(Marketing Communication & Public Relations Manager at Denka Pratama Indonesia)

The topics presented in ALSA LC Unsri's programs are very interesting, especially during the ALSA Legal Charity event, which discussed children's rights, an issue not many young people are aware of. I hope ALSA members remain humble and that ALSA continues to progress in line with the development of the times.

Vera Novianti, S.H., M.Hum.

(Lecturer at Faculty of Law, Universitas Sriwijaya)

Besides seminars, it would be beneficial for the student members to have a one-day discussion class. Good enthusiasm!

A. Yulianto Nurmansyah, S.H., LL.M.

(Managing Partner Nurmansyah Advocates and Nurmansyah IP Firm)

The participants of the ALSA Legal English 101 webinar demonstrated a strong learning mindset, which is essential for aspiring legal practitioners. It is crucial for future lawyers to continuously learn and absorb new knowledge in the legal practice areas they wish to pursue.

The material I presented, "The Sentence Logic," introduces a new perspective for both law students and practitioners in Indonesia on how to craft legal documents in both Bahasa Indonesia and, more importantly, English. Often, sentences in legal documents comply with grammatical and structural rules, yet still convey messages different from what the writer intends or become ambiguous and inconclusive. This is where the application of "The Sentence Logic" becomes crucial: ensuring that every sentence in a legal document accurately conveys its intended meaning, thereby enhancing the clarity and precision of legal writing.

(Legal English Counsel at ADCO Law)

What They Said About ALSA

Anggraini, S.Sos., M.Si.

Head of E-Government Management, Palembang City
Communication & Information Agency
(Speaker at ALSA ICT Laboratory 2025)

The activities conducted by ALSA LC Universitas Sriwijaya are highly valuable and are expected to be held more frequently so that the public can gain broader access to information concerning regulations related to technological advancement. Currently, public understanding of such regulations remains very limited; therefore, socialization and outreach efforts by both governmental and educational institutions are crucial to ensure that society develops a more comprehensive awareness of regulatory frameworks and the progress of technology.

I sincerely appreciate the activities organized by ALSA at the Faculty of Law, Universitas Sriwijaya. This initiative has been highly beneficial in facilitating the exchange of experiences and knowledge between the academic community, legal practitioners, and policymakers. Such activities are very positive, as they allow students to gain diverse and comprehensive insights into the development and understanding of law within society, while also serving as a platform for channeling public aspirations in the formulation of legal policies in Indonesia. I hope that this valuable initiative will continue to thrive, and I wish ALSA continued success.

Raymon, S.H., M.Hum.

Legal Drafter, Ministry of Law and Human Rights, RI
(Speaker at National Seminar of ALSA Legal Opinion Competition 2024)

I would like to extend my congratulations to ALSA Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya for successfully organizing an international video conference with an excellent theme on the role of diplomacy by both state and non-state actors in promoting peace and protecting human rights in conflict areas in 2025. At a time when the world is facing a crisis of leadership in upholding the values and norms enshrined in the United Nations Charter and the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights through international cooperation and multilateralism, such initiatives that bring together practitioners and academics provide valuable insights for students as well as for the wider community who uphold human rights values and are committed to sustainable peace.

Rafendi Djamin

Founder of Human Rights Working Group (HRWG) Indonesia
(Speaker at ALSA International Video Conference Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya 2025)

The implementation of ALSA Mooting Class by ALSA Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya was truly impressive and has provided strong motivation for law students of Universitas Sriwijaya as well as other law faculties across South Sumatra to compete with fairness and integrity in trial practice. I hope that ALSA LC Unsri will continue to elevate this initiative to the national level. This program, carried out in collaboration with relevant stakeholders, has been implemented successfully. The mooting competition itself serves as a practical application of procedural law theory learned in class, allowing students to simulate conventional courtroom proceedings directly, even though courts today have adopted electronic trials through the e-court system. Moving forward, it would be highly valuable for ALSA LC Unsri to expand the mooting class to include simulations of proceedings before the Administrative Court and the Religious Court, in addition to the General Court. Wishing continued success to ALSA LC Unsri.

Bonnyarti Kala Lande, S.H., M.H.

High Court Judge, State Administrative Court of Palembang
(Judges at ALSA Mooting Class 2025)

As Tan Malaka once said, "Idealism is the final luxury that belongs only to the youth." ALSA Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya stands as a gathering place for students to uphold this luxury of idealism and intellectual pursuit. The activities carried out by the members of ALSA LC Unsri are not only beneficial for themselves but also bring value to the wider community. Continue to embody the true spirit of students and young people who dare to be transformative and impactful.

Dr. A. Patra M Zen, S.H., LL.M.

Secretary General of PERADI-SAI & Head of IKA FH Unsri
(Speaker at National Seminar of ALSA Legal Opinion Competition 2024)

The organizing of the ALSA International Video Conference Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya 2025 is timely due to the escalating atrocities and humanitarian crises in the region and around the world. Through the conference, we learned that each and every one of us as the international communities play an important role in promoting and protecting human rights. Congratulations to ALSA Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya 2024-2025 for organizing such a meaningful event. "Human Rights for All".

Helmi Fendy Mohammad Idris

Head of the International Coordination Division in SUHAKAM (The Human Rights Commission of Malaysia)
(Speaker at ALSA International Video Conference Local Chapter Universitas Sriwijaya 2025)

My impression of this ALSA LC activity is that it is a very commendable initiative in fostering the intellectual growth of students and encouraging the courage to act in accordance with the law. My message is to always strive for improvement, maintain enthusiasm in studying the law, and continue sharing this knowledge with society so that legal awareness may flourish among the people. By doing so, God willing, our nation can achieve greater order and peace, bringing goodness to Indonesia, particularly to the province of South Sumatra.

Dr. M. Ihsan, S.S., M.H.

South Sumatra Regional Police, Head of Legal Aid Sub-Directorate
(Speaker at ALSA Mooting Class 2025 Seminar)
